

ADRA Appeal in November

During the month of November collectors will call on as many homes as possible in and around Bairnsdale, and at traffic lights on Saturday, November 1 and 8, seeking funds for its community disaster and relief programs in Australia, the Pacific Islands and around the world.

The Adventist Development and Relief Agency believes that every person is infinitely valuable and works with people regardless of ethnic, racial, religious or political associations.

Its work includes the supply of food, water, health, medical supplies, education, work, and disaster relief. It operates programs in Australia such as disaster relief under the banner of ADRAcare.

ADRA is one of Australia's major non-government organisations, fully accredited with the Australian Government's Agency for International Development, AusAid. It is the a signatory of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) code of conduct and is committed to professional integrity, transparency and accountability.

ADRA Australia is part of ADRA International, the worldwide humanitarian operation of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and is externally audited annually. On a worldwide basis, ADRA is recognised in over 120 countries and approved by the United Nations.

Finally, donors are reminded that 100 per cent of funds collected are allotted to the program or people in need. Administration costs such as advertising etc. come from within church resources. Donations of $2 or more are tax deductible.

Should you wish to make a personal donation, the postal address is 'ADRA Appeal, PO Box 129, Wahroonga, NSW, 2076'.

By donating to the ADRA Appeal you help those less fortunate. (PS)
